

KILCHOMAN DISTILLERY

Kilchoman Distillery was founded in 2005 and is the first distillery to be built on Islay for over 120 years. Kilchoman displays all that is great about the grass-roots traditions of Scotch whisky distilling. As well as being one of only a handful of distilleries still practicing floor malting, barley is also grown on the farm, making Kilchoman the only distillery to complete all parts of the whisky making process on site. Kilchoman truly is Islay's farm distillery – from barley to bottling.

Our 100% Islay range is the world's only Single Farm Single Malt Scotch Whisky. It represents the revival of traditional farm distilling; growing our own barley before malting, distilling, maturing and bottling every bottle of our 100% Islay range on site.

95 Points – Gold – International Wine and Spirits Competition – “Wonderful fruity: sweet blackcurrants and strawberry jam. Milk chocolate, nuts, honey and grass line a palate lifted by lemon zest. Long, sweet and smoky finish. Sublime.”

Kilchoman Loch Gorm 2021 Release, Islay

6/.750L

Loch Gorm is the name given to our annual sherry matured limited edition. Named after Islay's largest freshwater lake neighboring the distillery. Loch Gorm is Islay's biggest freshwater loch with an abundance of wildlife and dark peat colored waters. The Allt Gleann Osamail burn, from which we collect our production water, is one of the loch's major tributaries.

Exclusively matured in oloroso sherry casks from the renowned bodega, Jose Miguel Martin. It is common for distilleries to use a variety of sherry producers but for our consistent quality and character, it is vital that we source them all from just one bodega. We select a combination of sherry butts and hogsheads from Jose Miguel Martin that provides two separate styles of maturation. These ex-oloroso sherry casks impart a combination of heavy sherry notes, spicy dark chocolate, rich fruits and burnt sugar. This balances beautifully with the Kilchoman peat smoke and citrus fruits found within our farm crafted spirit. Flavors of cloves, dark chocolate, and juicy prunes with waves of roasted almonds, sultanas, nougat, and peat embers.
